Compliments of the Season!

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen” (Lk. 24:5).

More often than not, we spend our time chasing shadows because we don't listen and believe in the Gospel. Belief goes with patience, humility, and total dependence on God. Christ has conquered death and darkness to reveal Himself to us as a perfect gift. He has given us the power and enduring peace that will enable us triumph all odds. Let's embrace the challenges ahead with full conviction rather than live in fear of the past. The future holds great things for us. Don't be afraid, because He is with you. As we celebrate this Easter, we pray that Christ's victory will inspire us as we face the challenges ahead.

Happy Easter to you all!
